EXECUTIVE ORDER From President Geri Small

May 14th, 2008

With a sorrowful heart for the loss of a beloved tribal elder and pursuant to my authority as Tribal President, I am issuing this Executive Order establishing Friday, May 16th, 2008 as a Tribal Day of Mourning for Joe Fox, Sr.

Mr. Fox was an esteemed Ceremonial Man, former Bundle Keeper for the Elk Horn Scraper Society and a source of inspiration and support for many Northern Cheyenne. The loss of Mr. Joe Fox, Sr. is felt throughout the reservation community and it is appropriate that we take time for reflection and prayer at this time. The Tribal leadership extends sincere condolences to the Fox family. I thank the Tribal Council and Tribal employees for their generous donations to assist the Fox family in this hour of loss.

Accordingly, all tribal personnel will be granted Administrative Leave on Friday, May 16th, 2008 to attend the funeral services for Mr. Fox or to privately reflect upon the loss of an honorable tribal elder. The Tribal Offices will be closed in respect to the Fox family. Tribal paychecks will be issued at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 15th, 2008.

President Geri Small
