SUBJECT: Little Wolf Capitol Building Security Check Point

The Tribal President, Geri Small, has cancelled the security check-point for the public entrance to the Little Wolf Capitol Building beginning today, May 6, 2008. The north and south side doors will remain accessible with security cards and the doors on the west will remain secured until further notice. The main entrance for access to the Tribal administrative offices will be the east entrance from 8:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. Entrance before and after regular business hours will require a written request to the President or designee's office.

The Tribal administration and Tribal Council offices are open to business and visitor access at the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Headquarters. Feel free to visit your Tribal Council representatives and conduct your business with the various offices in the Capitol Building.
